

The Plan

The Creator would enter His creation, not as Ruler of the earth, but as a baby.

The King of the universe would not be born in a royal palace in Jerusalem but in a stable in the obscure little town of Bethlehem.

The One who created innumerable angels would Himself become lower than angels, Hebrews 2:7.

The Son of God voluntarily left the glory and power in heaven that He had rightfully known for all eternity to become a man, not temporarily, but for all eternity.

Sovereign God, the highest authority in the universe, would subordinate Himself to His step-father and His mother.

The Prince of Peace would be spit upon, punched, brutality beaten, whipped, nailed to a cross, and run through with a spear.

The Righteous One would be treated unfairly, cheated, lied to, maligned, and unjustly tried.

The One who is Love would be resented, rejected, and hated by those full of jealousy, spite, revulsion and rage.

Why would Jesus Christ, the Son of God, voluntarily accept such a plan?

Because of an INFINITE LOVE He has for us that is beyond our comprehension.
